Goddesses of Cuisine Collection

In 2011, Echo complete an entire series inspired by varied categories of cuisine commissioned by a famous international gourmet grocer in Atlanta, GA. He instructed Echo to "...make my business over just as Mucha did for his patrons." Then he left her alone to do what she does best. The results are absolutely stunning. The complete series includes 21 different works, including NSFW variations of many designs. The illustrations will be installed in Fall of 2011 but a very lucky few will be able to own a limited edition Giclee for their home. Each piece in the series comes in either 24 and 36 inch sizes.

About Echo Chernik

Echo is a multiple award winning fine artist, illustrator and instructor with hundreds of publishing credits. She has been featured numerous times on CBS news, international art magazines, and been the study of several art historians. After graduating summa cum laude in 1995 from Pratt Institute of Art & Design in New York, she quickly became a highly sought after illustrator for book publishing, product design and - most notably - poster design.
